EUROPEAN NIGHT OF MUSEUMS 2013

The Musinf, Municipal Museum of modern art and photography, was established in 1981 by the Municipality of Senigallia, carrying out a project of the writer and art critic Carlo Emanuele Bugatti. This project had been signed by prominent artists such as Virgilio Guidi, Umberto Mastroianni Orpheus, Drums, Ernesto Treccani, Victor Vasarely, Arnaldo Ciarrocchi, Gianni Dova. It arose from the desire to inform the relationship between words and images, from the XVI century until the development of the techniques of engraving and printing. In the '80 many artists join this project and donate lots of their works to Musinf. became one of the main centers of Italian documentation of contemporary art and photography.

NIGHT FASCINATION . WHEN WATER TOUCH THE ART

Omer Museum offers to the public an unique multi-sensory journey, focused on the concept of water. The new location of Museum Omero is "la Mole Vanvitelliana", a pentagonal fortress on the sea designed by Luigi Vanvitelli. "La Mole" has inspired an interactive journey to live in the museum at night. The water will be represented through its links with sculptures: from Piety and Moses by Michelangelo to the latest acquisitions of contemporary sculpture by De Chirico, Consagra, Martini, Marini and many others. People, interacting with the works of art, will leave a "sign" of their passage. A special thanks to Civil Service Volunteers, European Volunteers and the Interns of the Museum.
